REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Boston, June 4.—Boston outplayed St. Louis at every turn this afternoon and won by a score of 6 to 2. The main trouble with St. Louis was that their players could not hit Dineen effectively, or when they did give evidence of making a succession of hits the Boston pitcher was splendidly supported. Hughey was effective in the first two innings, but in the third the locals jumped on him hard. In the sixth also they found him for enough hits to make two more runs. After that he steadied down, but the game was as good as won then for Boston was giving Dineen the best of support.

In the second, Burkett singled and reached second when Long dropped Charlie's throw. He scored on Keeler's single. In the third, McGraw got his base, reached second on Damoyan's grounder and scored on Dineen's double. This gave St. Louis two runs.

When Boston came to bat for the last of the third, Low put on a two-base and scored on Dineen's hit. Hamilton and Collins both singled and Dineen scored. Stahl's double brought Hamilton and Collins in and Boston had the lead, 4 to 2. In the ninth Tenney singled and scored on Stahl's double. This was the last time that Boston did any scoring, for Hughey and his mates could do was to lift a foul fly to Clark.

Dineen Patted.

In the fifth, with one out, Louis made another bad mistake, McGraw making a single and Damoyan working his base. Dineen was counted on to do something, but the best he did was to roll out a grounder to Lowe, who made a double play with Tenney and who made a double play with Dineen.

Hartford's Doinin and Burkett did some of the best hitting of the game, each being credited with catches of long flies.

In the eighth, Hartford was the leaders, both in number and timeliness of hits. Each brought in two runs with a twobagger.

The game was very little, though compared with Saturday's game. Dineen was called out for interference in the fifth, when Umpire Swartwood claimed that he prevented Clark from driving McGraw home. The hard game of Sunday evidently left more of an impression on the St. Louis players than that of Saturday. The visitors fought hard to win and the game they put up would have won under ordinary conditions, but it was a Boston day and the local boys were the leaders. They had the cleanest games that they have this year, a game that would be hard for any team to beat. Their winning was fair, for the men behind him saw that he hit well and looked safe, while on the St. Louis side there is no mistaking the fact that Hughey was not having his best game. Luck was all with Boston and the errors of judgment were mostly on the St. Louis side.
